

"The greatest will you can build is the ability to do what you know you need to do, despite how you feel in the moment."

"Believe you can and you're halfway there."

- Theodore Roosevelt